

Webinar Series

Food Access Equity: Giving Everyone a Place at the Table

Wednesday, September 14, 2022

1 p.m. - 2 p.m. CDT

Register here or scan the code below. A recording of the webinar will also be posted at this site.

Come to discuss what equitable food access means and looks like, the major drivers of food insecurity and who is most affected, as well as promising practices that can be implemented to promote food accessibility. We have assembled speakers from practice to share their expertise and experience through an equity-minded approach. The session will conclude with open conversation.

● Featuring panelists:

Nicki Ross
Table to Table

Luke Elzinga
Des Moines
Area Religious Council

Marlén Mendoza
League of United Latin American Citizens

IOWA

IDPH
IOWA Department of PUBLIC HEALTH

College of Public Health

This project is funded by the Iowa Department of Public Health.